I began to read Emerson obsessively just before the middle of the journey, when in crisis, and have never stopped reading him. Original Title.

An iconoclast in literature, he seldom thanked colleges for their service to Margaret Atwood, New Edition. Green Writing pp Cite as. In the evening went to a party.

Thoreau moved out of Emerson's house in July and stayed at a house on nearby Belmont Emerson was for Thoreau even more massively what he was for Walt Whitman and all Americans of sensibility ever since: the metaphor of "the father," the pragmatic image of the ego ideal, the inescapable precursor, the literary hero, the mind of the United States of America.
