Only when the living become attached to the non-living does suffering result. All existence is connected in a unity – individual, global and universal.

OxfordBlackwells,pp.Stoicethicsstressedtherule:"Followwherereason Love supports the other, shows itself in compassion and devotion to the other, supports without expectation and is unconditional. In order to achieve this, one would ask God for the forgiveness of one's own sins, and one would also forgive the sins of one's fellow humans. The declining vitality of modern Europe formulates its social ideals in its decaying instincts: and these ideals are all so like those of old and effete races, that they might be mistaken for one . This all leaves much room for speculation about how the physical cosmos emerges how do we know this, and from what perspective do we contemplate Being as finite?
