The use of footnotes to convey such alternatives was not an option in those days. It was published in September, with special reference to Emser, whom he does not name, but calls "the scribbler from Dresden" "der dresdener Sudler". Luther was firm in his determination to go, and began the journey in April undeterred by the news, on the way, that the emperor had ordered his books to be burned.

Luther made his profession as a monk in September and was then prepared for ordination. He had a remarkable gift for turning biblical phrases into memorable English. In short, there is nothing there but holiness! Are they theologians?

Before any word or phrase could be put on paper, it had to pass the test of Luther. He attempted to break up the friendship of the two. According to de Waard and Nida, the essence of translation may be summarized as follows An expression in any language consists of a set of forms that signal meaning on various levels: lexical, grammatical, and rhetorical.
