Adams appointed two U. Aunt Susan informed me that grandmother said that the Americans robbed them of everything in the hotel, that she had eleven feather beds, that the only thing saved out of the house was the family Bible which was buried in the ground until after the war.

Grandmotherhadhersturdyeldestdaughterovereighteen,andHarrietveryl Grandmother studied awhile, thinking of what she could best do, when she observed the sow coming into the back yard with her litter of fine one-month-old pigs ; 10 Trout Family History her mind then was soon made up; she would have a roasted pig; she saw a good hvely job ahead and began at. Now, fresh meat in the summer time in those days was not to be obtained on call out- side of the cities. Grandfather was also captain of a militia company, which he had been drilling and had called out ready for service orders, when the rebellion

Could this be a hint that the police force protects people behind crimes like this? It was finally awarded eight hundred acres of wild land in the township of Erin, which at that time must have been newly surveyed, and was at least twenty-five miles north and beyond the settlements, which were mainly at or near the Lake Ontario coast.
