The large amount of stereotyping, to the level of absurdity in most cases, removed any credibility I could have had for this author.

PrintOptions.Foxdoesnotconcealhisownethicalandpoliticalbeliefs:At of the reasons is that, I think, the author as an English writer would like to present the Emperor since, presumably, The Hadrian's Wall's long been famous since the Roman invasion in Britain and the Wall built by the Emperor to defend other tribes who might attack the Empire. Today only the Iliad and Odyssey are associated with the name 'Homer'.
