In the United States, the elders deployed Cold War and Vietnam-era stereotypes such as "commies" and "fags," the youthful protesters responded with "Nazis" and "pigs," while the media propagated the invective of both sides. In the afternoon, bed rest was ordered, how awful, then we had our haversacks liberally filled, and a drink for our canteens into the bargain. Instead, she insisted on becoming naturalized and used her transnational background as a basis to address democratic gaps from the vantage point of an American citizen. ByDylanFortushniok.
