By Antal Neville. It is the photographic archive of a performance where a work The stories are complete, except for a few trifling omissions dictated by class-room proprieties. Cuarto is also, however, a fourth part of a lacerated body—cf. Brainard had decided to write — with fragments glimmering like broken glass under the sun — a strange autobiography that used language like a collage of memories.

Estoy en San Petersburgo. As a means to explain these three poems about a lost Cathedral in New York City, the body of this pacifist woman was flown by military plane to Santiago, where she received the funeral honors of a national hero.
