From Series one, The roof - undulating to mirror the rolling hills beyond - was insulated and covered with an eco-friendly plastic membrane, soil and seeds to grow a wildflower meadow that would blend in with the surrounding landscape. The house is now one of the best-performing Passivhaus dwellings in the UK.

This is proper architecture, a genius exercise in upcycling and, now, a power Architecturally it's everything I value in a building: a sense of space, its positioning in the landscape, and a playful and well-crafted design. There have been some real gems throughout the time that the show has been on air. This home is a radical piece of engineering, built beautifully, yet full of the imperfections we all . MindsArticles.
