The two former allies quickly became antagonists, however, in the power struggle. Key to this amalgam were several concepts shared by both groups but deployed in very different ways. Tucker argues that, for Ekken, "qi was a basis of both ethical cultivation and empirical exploration of the natural world" p. Last modified December 18, The convergences, however, insofar as we can discover them, should be given the attention they deserve since they transcend boundaries and point in the direction of a deeper unity pertaining not only to this or that particular tradition but to the cause of humanity .
