The Maras were forced to take out a significant loan to keep the franchise solvent as escalating player salaries rose disproportionately against the modest income stream that had yet to be augmented by lucrative television money. Robustelli even had a hand in the Giants new look on the field, and radically changed their logo and uniforms in time for the season.

Regardless of that final game, the Giants had a lot to feel good. Defensive tackle Rosey Grier was traded to Los Angeles after the season for John Lovetere, who was younger and more athletic than Grier, who suffered from chronic weight issues. Andtheycontinuedtolose.All that was required for New York to secure the victory was run one more play, keep the ball in bounds, and allow the remaining time to expire.
