To the sun, to the oceans To a land I have never discovered
There I will go, there is my hope To the seas, to the mountains To the meadows I will never leave again There I lay down, there is my crown And love. It You and me a long time ago We to the end the hidden gold A treasure so exciting We lost our souls. I saved my silver up for weeks to buy you those glass beads to wear around your pretty throat May the good lord save your soul.
