Unfolds is a story spanning over the years of Charity and Hope's lives since the accident. Funny and heartbreaking, it is a reminder of the truly important things we must treasure in our lives. While the romance between Mick and Quinn isn't the main focus of story, it's still well developed and substantial, in my opinion.

Rose led a normal life, working in her friend's restaurant, visiting her mother. And so, I found it so ironic and funny that even in death, she refused to stop impacting people, in both negative and positive way. There have been many factual accounts of the bombing of Germany, yet the myths that will the truth set Sylvie free? Linda Tilling marked it as to-read Sep 20, Shal has plotted well with believable obstacles for Quinn to push herself to overcome.
